

CURRICULUM VITAE

Muriel Bardon was born in Strasbourg and began her musical training at the Strasbourg Conservatoire. She continued her studies at the Musikhochschule Stuttgart with Christian Sikorski and later with Ingolf Turban, graduating in 2002 with Honours. Since the 2000/2001 season Muriel is a member of the Staatsorchester Stuttgart, and since 2002 is section leader of the 2nd Violins.

Outside the Staatsorchester Muriel also plays regularly as a soloist and, since 2003, turns to baroque music more and more.

Muriel built her baroque violin on a course in Fertans (France) in August 2004 with her partner Frank Bunselmeyer under the direction of luthiers Bruno Dreux and Pierre Lajugée.
